

From Edmund Quincy

Dedham, Aug. 7. 1842.

Dear Garrison:

⁶³ Yours of yesterday
rec^d. Mrs. May told me that Mr. A. Webb & wife were on their way to this Country & that they were first going to Leicester.
I beg you will let me know when they are with you, as otherwise I should not be likely to hear of it.
I trust their visit will not fall on a time when

From [unclear] [unclear]

October 17 1872

Dear [unclear]

your [unclear] [unclear]

has [unclear] [unclear]

been [unclear] [unclear]

counted [unclear] [unclear]

first [unclear] [unclear]

I [unclear] [unclear]

cannot [unclear] [unclear]

you, or [unclear] [unclear]

not [unclear] [unclear]

I [unclear] [unclear]

not [unclear] [unclear]

I shall be away next month. I should be sorry not to see them & have them at my house.

Always yours,

E. G.

Should be very much. I shall be very not to see them
them at my house.

Very yours

C. D.